

Clay Everest

Pronouns: he/him

Email address: wcde4077@gmail.com

Region: Avalon Peninsula

Willing to Travel: Yes

Available For: - Manuscript Evaluations

- Mentorship
- Prize Adjudication
- Readings
- Book Reviews
- Blog Writing
- Workshop Facilitation
- School Visits
- Interviewing
- Content Research

Biography: Clay Everest is a poet from Halifax, Nova Scotia, currently living in St. John's. He has a BA in English and Creative writing from Dalhousie University, a MA in English from Memorial University, and is also a founding editor of the Impressment Gang magazine. Everest has written two chapbooks of poetry and his writing has appeared in several publications, including words(on)pages, untethered, and Riddle Fence. In 2020, his poetry manuscript, No Subject for the Inexperienced, won the NLCU Fresh Fish award.

Selected Publications:

Riddle Fence

untethered

(parenthetical)

Paragon

And chapbooks from Paisley Chapbook Press and Word(on)Pages.

Selected Awards: - Won the NLCU Fresh Fish award in 2020

- Received an honorable mention in 2020 for the Riddle Fence poetry contest.