

Collin Glavac

Pronouns: he/him

Email address: collinglavac@gmail.com

Website: <http://collinglavac.com/>

Region: Avalon Peninsula

Willing to Travel: Yes

Available For:

- Manuscript Evaluations
- Mentorship
- Prize Adjudication
- Editing/Proofreading
- Readings
- Book Reviews
- Copywriting
- Play/Screen/Script Writing
- Ghost Writing
- Workshop Facilitation
- School Visits
- Speaking Engagements
- Interviewing

Other:

- Self-publishing
- Formatting
- Voice acting for audiobooks

Biography: Collin Glavac is a Canadian born writer from Southern Ontario, now living in beautiful St. John's Newfoundland. He has written, directed, and acted in two original stage plays: In Real Life and LoveSpell. He has written four self-published books: Ghosts of Guatemala, Operation Nicaragua, and Cuban Conspiracy all part of the John Carpenter Trilogy, and Vaulter's Magic, the first in the Daniel Vaulter series. He is a #1 Amazon Bestseller in Canada and Australia. Collin completed his Dramatic and Liberal Arts B.A. and M.A. at Brock University St. Catharines Canada. When Collin isn't writing he enjoys painting miniatures, performing improv, and drinking too much coffee.

Selected Publications: Ghosts of Guatemala (2019)
Operation Nicaragua (2021)

Vaulter's Magic (2021)
Cuban Conspiracy (2022)

Selected Awards: ArtsNL Professional Project Grants Program 2022